

STILLWATER ART GUILD MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

For the artist or patron, the Stillwater Art Guild is an organization dedicated to stimulating community interest in the visual arts. The Guild offers a wide variety of activities for professional and amateur artists, as well as for nonparticipating patrons of the fine arts.

The Stillwater Art Guild was founded in 1963. In the decades that have followed, the Guild has established firm roots, and its active membership has blossomed. Today the Guild is a vital organization dedicated to helping artists develop their talents to the fullest and to promoting the fine arts in the Stillwater community.

The Stillwater Art Guild meets at 7:00 PM the fourth Monday of each month, from September to April, excluding December, in the auditorium of the Sheerar Cultural and Heritage Center at 7th and S. Duncan in Stillwater. Each meeting features a demonstration by a notable artist. You may ask questions and interact with the artists as they create a work of art. Past demonstrations have featured many different media including oil, watercolor, acrylic and pastel painting to airbrushing, printmaking, sculpture, jewelry, fabric, and computer generated art. In addition, the evening's activities include refreshments and an opportunity for members to visit with fellow artists and art patrons.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in the arts. Benefits of your membership include:

- Free attendance at monthly demonstrations with refreshments provided by members
- Participation in two fine art shows (one judged and one non-judged)
- Exhibiting your art at commercial and public places in Stillwater
- Networking with other artists in the community
- Reduced fees for workshops held by well-known artists
- A monthly newsletter (August - April)

The Stillwater Art Guild is funded solely by membership dues and voluntary contributions.
Any additional donations are greatly appreciated.

Please clip the following membership form and mail it with your check payable to the Stillwater Art Guild.
